

Dear Parent/Guardian and Teachers,

Good news – Audubon School District has subscribed to Scholastic GO!, the most comprehensive source of nonfiction content, up-to-date information, and homework help targeted to students in grades 3 and up! Scholastic GO! enables you and your children to have a differentiated learning and/or research experience by having the choice of logging in to one of three Scholastic GO! domains that best pertains to their need or grade level: Elementary School, Middle School, and High School.

Your children can access Scholastic GO! anywhere there is an Internet connection, including your home! This interactive resource is the ultimate homework helper and it will help students with research projects and reports and extend the learning beyond school hours. Here's what Scholastic GO! includes:

- > Access to over 120,000 articles at multiple reading levels and perspectives.
- > An eclectic and authoritative mix of media including videos, photos, audio clips, and maps.
- > 340,000 continuously updated and vetted web links.
- > GOTube videos that engage children and patrons around key learning moments.
- > A collection of over 1,100 world newspapers in 73 languages representing 195 countries.
- > Over 1,200 clickable maps with an exhaustive array of drill-down content behind it.
- > Limitless access to all the great Scholastic GO! content with access anywhere there's an internet connection.
- > Access continues over the summer.

Site: <http://www.go.grolier.com> (ID: greenwave / PW: audubon)

Audubon School District
Wilma Fitzpatrick, Educational Media Specialist
350 Edgewood Avenue
Audubon, NJ 08106

wfitzpatrick@audubonschools.org

Happy learning!

Sincerely,
Wilma Fitzpatrick

